STATE GOOD ROADS PROGRAM

Failure of Constitutional Amendments to Pass Will Delay Work
Twenty Years, Says Speaker

That it will take twenty years to complete a good road system in Virginia if the proposed constitutional amendments to enable the Legislature and the Governor of Virginia to use the credit of the State for highway construction, are not passed in November, was pointed out by V. D. L. Robinson, executive secretary of the Wirginia Round and School, and the Good Roads Association, last night at a meeting of the Richmond Council, No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Castle, Grand Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers of America held in Pythian Council No. 59, United Commercial Travelers has the largest membership of any single profession with the World Wart.
